Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

As previously announced, on May 24, 2017, CF Corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with FGL US Holdings Inc., an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of the Company (“Parent”), FGL Merger Sub Inc., a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (“Merger Sub”) and Fidelity & Guaranty Life (“FGL”). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, the Company has agreed to acquire FGL for $31.10 per share in cash, or a total of approximately $1.835 billion, plus the assumption of $405 million of existing debt, through the merger of Merger Sub with and into FGL (the “Merger”), with FGL continuing as the surviving entity.

On November 8, 2017, the Company (and related applicants) received the approval of the New York Department of Financial Services necessary as a condition to completion of the Merger. Accordingly, the sole remaining regulatory approval that is a condition to completion of the Merger is that of the Iowa Insurance Division. On November 7, 2017, the Iowa Insurance Division held a public hearing to consider whether the proposed acquisition of control of Fidelity & Guaranty Life Insurance Company complies with the standards set forth under applicable Iowa insurance laws. Both the Company and FGL are committed to close the Merger as soon as practicable and continue to expect the closing to occur by year end 2017, subject to receipt of this sole remaining regulatory approval and satisfaction of the other closing conditions specified in the Merger Agreement.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the “safe harbor” provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The Company’s and FGL’s actual results may differ from their expectations, estimates and projections and consequently, you should not rely on these forward looking statements as predictions of future events. Words such as “expect,” “estimate,” “project,” “budget,” “forecast,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “may,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “believes,” “predicts,” “potential,” “might” and “continues,” and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, the Company’s expectations and projections with respect to the completion of the Merger. These forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties that could cause the actual results to differ materially from the expected results. Most of these factors are outside the Company’s and FGL’s control and are difficult to predict. Factors that may cause such differences include, but are not limited to: (1) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the Merger Agreement; (2) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against the Company or FGL following the announcement of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein; (3) the inability to complete the Merger, including due to failure to meet conditions to closing in the Merger Agreement; (4) delays in obtaining, adverse conditions contained in, or the inability to obtain necessary regulatory approvals (including approval from insurance regulators) required to complete the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; (5) the ability to achieve tax and operational efficiencies or to achieve incremental investment returns from asset management; (6) the ability to identify and consummate accretive, value added acquisitions; (7) the inability to obtain or maintain the listing of the post-acquisition company’s ordinary shares on a stock exchange following the Merger; (8) the risk that the Merger disrupts current plans and operations as a result of the announcement and consummation of the Merger; (9) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the Merger, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of the combined company to grow and manage growth profitably and retain its key employees; (10) costs related to the Merger; (11) changes in applicable laws or regulations; (12) the possibility that FGL or the combined company may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors; and (13) other risks and uncertainties identified in the Company’s proxy statement relating to the Merger, including those under “Risk Factors” therein, and in the Company’s and FGL’s other filings with the SEC. The foregoing list of factors is not exclusive. Readers should not place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. The Company does not undertake or accept any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect any change in its expectations or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based, subject to applicable law.
